Script (Question 1)	This morning was windy. By noon, grey clouds rolled in and it looked like rain, but by evening, the sky had cleared completely and the sun came out.
1	(1) Sunny	1
Script (Question 2)	Ethan wanted a cat, but his father said cats make him sneeze. He then considered a hamster, but his mother felt it was too much upkeep for such a small cage. In the end, they decided on a dog, since the whole family could take it for walks together.
2	(2) Dog	1
Script (Question 3)	The school canteen opens for recess at nine o'clock. By the time Dilys queued for her food and found a seat, it was already quarter past nine.
3	(4) Quarter past 9	1
Script (Question 4)	Hafiz planned to bring his football to Sports Day, but changed his mind and thought about his water bottle instead, since he needed to stay hydrated under the hot sun. At the last minute, however, he grabbed his school bag instead, remembering he needed his house T-shirt inside it.
4	(2) School bag	1
Script (Question 5)	At the canteen, Priya first reached for a watermelon slice, but the queue was too long. She then thought about getting an orange, but all of them looked a little dried out. In the end, she picked a banana, since it was quick to eat before her race.
5	(3) Banana	1

Script (Question 6)	Mother was folding laundry in the bedroom a while ago. Then she moved to the living room to watch the news. Just now, she went into the kitchen to start preparing dinner.
6	(2) Kitchen	1

Script (Announcement)	Good morning, Primary 3 pupils. This is an announcement from the PE department. Our school's Sports Day, originally planned for Wednesday, will now be held on Thursday instead, because of the expected thunderstorms earlier in the week. Please report to the field by seven thirty in the morning. The entrance fee for family members is ten dollars, which already includes a two-dollar early-bird discount. The teacher-in-charge is Mr Farid — that is spelled F, A, R, I, D. Bring your house T-shirt and a water bottle.

Script (Story)	Here is a short story. Listen carefully, then answer the questions. During the sports day relay race, Marcus was the last runner for his team. Just before his turn, he realised his shoelace had come undone. Instead of panicking, he quickly knelt down and retied it, even though his teammates were shouting at him to hurry. When he finally ran, his team was in third place, but Marcus sprinted so fast that he overtook two other runners and crossed the finish line in first place.
12	(2) Retied his shoelace	1
13	(2) His shoelace had come undone	1
14	(3) First	1
