Script (Question 1)	The sky was clear and sunny when the class set off. By midday, it had become cloudy with no rain. Just before the bus ride home, strong winds started blowing litter across the carpark.
1	(4) Windy	1
Script (Question 2)	Celeste's family first thought about a dog, but their flat does not allow large pets. They then considered a rabbit, but her brother is afraid of its sudden movements. In the end, they chose a hamster, since it is small and easy to care for.
2	(4) Hamster	1
Script (Question 3)	The museum tour was supposed to start at nine o'clock. Because the bus arrived late, the tour only began at quarter past nine instead.
3	(4) Quarter past 9	1
Script (Question 4)	Timothy wanted to bring his comic book to read on the bus to the museum, but his teacher reminded pupils to bring their worksheet booklets instead. At the last minute, he also grabbed his umbrella, since the forecast mentioned afternoon showers.
4	(1) Umbrella	1
Script (Question 5)	At the museum cafe, Adam first looked at the watermelon slices, but they were sold out. He then considered an orange, but found it too sour the last time. In the end, he chose an apple, since it was fresh and not too messy to eat.
5	(1) Apple	1

Script (Question 6)	The souvenir keychain was priced at eight dollars at first. Because the museum was having a members' day, the price dropped to seven dollars. Adam's mother showed her staff discount card, bringing the final price down to five dollars.
6	(3) $5	1

Script (Announcement)	Good morning, Primary 3 pupils. This is an announcement from the school office. Our Learning Journey to the Science Centre, originally planned for Thursday, has been moved to Monday instead, because the centre is closed for a private event on Thursday. Please gather at the school hall by eight fifteen in the morning. The entrance fee is twelve dollars, which already includes a one-dollar discount for pupils who bring their own water bottle. The teacher-in-charge is Mr Krishnan — that is spelled K, R, I, S, H, N, A, N. Remember to bring a hat and sunblock.
7	Monday	1

Script (Story)	Here is a short story. Listen carefully, then answer the questions. At the library, Mei Xin wanted to borrow a graphic novel, but all the copies were already checked out. The librarian suggested she add her name to a waiting list instead. While waiting, Mei Xin picked up a book about ocean animals, and found it so interesting that she forgot all about the graphic novel. By the time the librarian called to say the graphic novel was ready, Mei Xin had already finished reading two books about the ocean.
12	(2) All the copies were checked out	1

13	(2) Add her name to a waiting list	1
14	(2) Finished two books about the ocean	1
