Section G: Comprehension 1 (8 marks)

Read the passage and answer the questions.

A Morning at the Market

Jun woke up early on Sunday to accompany his grandmother to the wet market near their flat. She needed fresh ingredients to cook her famous herbal chicken soup for a family gathering.

At the vegetable stall, Grandmother carefully picked out the freshest ginger and goji berries, chatting with the stallholder she had known for many years.

While they were choosing chicken at the poultry stall, Jun noticed an elderly man struggling to carry two heavy bags of rice. Without being asked, Jun ran over and offered to help carry one bag to the man's bicycle.

The elderly man thanked Jun warmly and remarked that young people nowadays were rarely so considerate. Grandmother overheard this and beamed with pride at her grandson.

On the way home, Grandmother told Jun that kindness shown to strangers often returns to you in unexpected ways. Jun smiled, feeling that the whole morning had been worth waking up early for.

35. Why did Jun accompany his grandmother to the market? ( )

Section H: Comprehension 2 (8 marks)

Read the passage and answer the questions.

The Overdue Book

Ryan borrowed a thick encyclopedia about dinosaurs from the school library for a project. He promised the librarian, Mrs Pillai, that he would return it within two weeks.

Halfway through his project, Ryan accidentally spilled orange juice on one corner of the book. He panicked, imagining he would have to pay a huge fine or be banned from borrowing books.

Instead of hiding the problem, Ryan decided to tell Mrs Pillai honestly what had happened as soon as he returned the book, even though he was nervous about her reaction.

Mrs Pillai thanked him for being honest and explained that accidents happen sometimes. She only asked him to be more careful with library books in future, and waived the usual fine.

Relieved, Ryan promised to always keep drinks away from borrowed books from then on. He also told his classmates how honesty had saved him from a much bigger problem.

42. Which word in paragraph 3 means “truthfully”? (1 mark)
